Vienna, Feb. 15. Letters of the 28th past from Cronstat on the Frontiers of Transilvania advise, that Prince Stephen Cantacuzeno, who succeeded the late Prince of Walachia, and had been one great Occasion of the Disgrace and terrible Execution of him and his whole Family, had been seized in like Manner on the 26th, and carried away to Constantinople, with his Wife, Children, and whatever belonged to him. The Hospodar of Moldavia, Nicholas Maurocordato, is made Prince of Walachia; and Michael Beig, a Native of Moldavia, and Son in Law of Maurocordato, is made Hospodar of Moldavia. A Relation of the deposed Prince of Walachia, endeavoured to save himself on Horseback with a great Sum in Gold, but had the Misfortune to get a Fall just on the Frontiers of Transilvania, and was taken and carried after the rest by the Turks.

Genoa, Feb. 18. On the 15th arrived here the Worcester, a British Man of War Commanded by Captain Kempthorn, who 18 Days before left Admiral Baker at Port-Mahon. The said Man of War will make but a short Stay here, being ordered to proceed to Leghorne. About 5000 of the Emperour's Troops, came lately to Novi within the Territories of this Republick; but some Agreement being made with them, till a Courier returns from Vienna with His Imperial Majesty's Answer to the Offers of Satisfaction made to Him by this State, those Troops are marched back to the Milaneze.

Dresden, Feb. 19. To Day Thirty Colours, Two Standards, a Kettle-Drum, and Two Pieces of Cannon, which fell to the Share of King Augustus's Troops, as Part of those taken from the Swedes at Rugen and at Stralsund, were brought through this City; and having been carried before the Queen at the Castle, were afterwards lodged in the Arsenal. Letters from Warsaw advise, that the King of Poland arrived there on the 7th of this Month.
